THE 9TH NEW ZEALAND NATIONAL CLASSIC CAR RALLY ENTRY FORM, INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION

Aim of the event: To encourage and promote the use of classic vehicles and build unity and comradeship amongst their owners. While there will be some prizes to be won, this is mainly a touring rally.

Structure of the event: The rally will be based at the Gisborne A and P Showgrounds.

The draft schedule is as follows:

Sunday: Check in and welcoming function
Monday: 1st Rally Tour Day
Tuesday: 2nd Rally Tour Day
Wednesday: Various Optional Activities
Thursday: 3rd Rally Tour Day
Friday: Optional Activities
Saturday: Public display and autogymkhana followed by prizegiving dinner.

Eligible Vehicles: All vehicles considered by their owners to be 'Classic' regardless of age, country of origin, etc, may be entered. Vehicles should not be highly modified, and must be capable of motoring at least 100 miles in 3 hours. Vehicles will be required to be currently registered with a valid WvF or CoF at the time of the event. The organisers reserve the right to exclude any vehicle deemed unsuitable.

Eligible Participants: Any person driving an entered vehicle on any official rally event must have a current valid driver's licence. The driver must comply with all N.Z. traffic safety laws, and must not drive or use the vehicle in any way that endangers other people or property.

Entry Form Details:

a) Names and contact information - required for us to return information to you, invoice you for rally fees owing, provide you with tickets and passes, and to generally assist in planning.

b) Vehicle details-required for the event's official programme. Important - Please provide a colour print of your vehicle with your completed entry form or email a digital pix. All vehicles entered for the event must be insured for at least third party cover.

c) Concours d'Elegance event - in order to keep the judging to a manageable level, vehicles entered for the concours should be either recent high quality restorations, original vehicles in superb condition, or have a history of success in established concours events.

Entry Fees: The entry fee is $350 to register one vehicle, and up to two adults. This covers administration costs, rally packs and plaque, lunch at the "Whalerider" Movie marae, entry to the Eastwoodhill Arboretum, two tickets to the prize giving dinner plus the right to take part in the rally and associated events. The fees for extra passengers are $100 for adults and $25 for children aged 5-15 years. All other meal and accommodation costs are to be met by the rally participants.

A deposit of $50 is required with the completed entry form. An invoice for the balance of the fees owing will be forwarded and will be payable by December 15th 2009 to ensure inclusion in the rally programme.

Refunds: In the event of an entrant being forced to cancel, only the $50 deposit is non-refundable but can be held over till a future rally.

What Next? - When we receive your deposit and completed entry form, we will issue you with a provisional rally number, and forward you an invoice for the balance of fees owing and other information to assist you in budgeting and planning for the event. It is intended to send out rally packs in January.
